We acknowledge with deep gratitude the following individuals who contributed to the development of this treatment program. First, we would like to acknowledge authors of the first edition of this guide (Tina Boisseau, Chris Fairholme, and Laura Payne). Without their thoughtful contributions to the first edition, this edition would not have been possible. Additionally, our thanks go to Amantia Ametaj, James Boswell, Laren Conklin, Matthew Gallagher, and Cassidy Gutner. Their feedback was invaluable to make the necessary updates included in this edition of this therapist guide. Further, we would like to express appreciation to past and current members of our research group who have helped shape our thinking on the Unified Protocol: Jenna Carl, Johanna Thompson-Hollands, Julianne Wilner, Meghan Fortune, Katherine Kennedy, Ujunwa Anakwenze, Olenka Olesnycky, Gabriela Aisenberg, and Gayle Tan. Finally, we wish to extend our gratitude to researchers and clinicians using the Unified Protocol around the world that have provided their insights regarding our treatment and offered suggestions to revise this second edition, as well as to our patients; their willingness to share their experiences has been invaluable to the initial development and ongoing refinement of this treatment program.
